Welcome to Ca' Dadda

Your Exclusive Business Setting in the Heart of Venice

Ca' Dadda is a historic palazzetto located directly on the Canal Grande, offering an exceptional setting for business events in one of the world's most iconic cities.

Whether you are hosting a customer presentation, press conference, training session, corporate event, or planning a memorable incentive for employees, clients, or suppliers, Ca' Dadda provides the perfect environment.

Spanning three elegant floors, the building combines timeless Venetian architecture with modern comfort. Its spacious and light-filled interiors, along with a suspended terrace offering breathtaking views of the Canal Grande, create an unforgettable backdrop for your event.

Location & Positioning

Overlooking the Grand Canal, with a privileged view of the Rialto Bridge, Ca' Dadda stands as one of Venice's most iconic and private venues.

Ideally located in the heart of the city, it provides easy access to the city's main landmarks while preserving an atmosphere of complete privacy and tranquility.

Its private water gate allows guests to arrive by boat in true Venetian style, ensuring a refined and distinctive arrival.

Spaces Overview

Ca' Dadda's exclusive spaces combine historic charm with contemporary comfort.

The Grand Salon, with its mullioned windows and Art Deco touches, stands as the heart of the residence and opens onto a bold 30-square-meter terrace offering a 180-degree panorama that sweeps from the iconic Rialto Bridge to Palazzo Vendramin Calergi.

The property also features:

- a private meeting room
- refined lounge areas ideal for networking
- elegant guest rooms for executive hospitality
- a fully equipped kitchen designed for tailor-made events

Each space is designed to ensure privacy, comfort and a refined, professional setting.

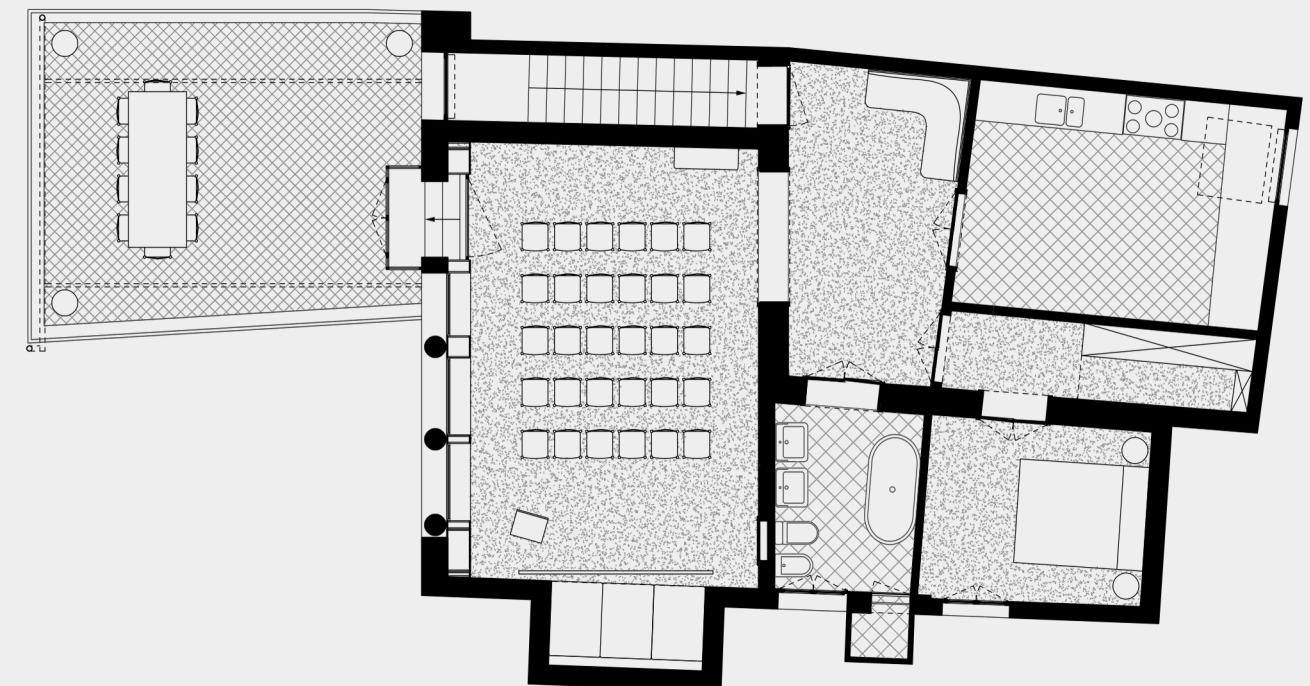

Meeting Room

Ca' Dadda's meeting room is designed to host presentations, workshops and training sessions in a fully private and exclusive setting.

It can accommodate up to 30 seated participants and is equipped with a projection screen, lectern, sound system and blackout curtains to ensure optimal visibility and comfort during presentations.

The venue also offers the possibility to organize coffee breaks and business lunches for up to 30 guests, enhancing networking moments within an elegant and functional setting.

Professional support materials and on-site organizational assistance are included. Upon request, the spaces can be configured to host up to three breakout groups, offering a flexible layout suitable for parallel sessions or interactive activities.

Corporate Events

Ca' Dadda offers the perfect setting to celebrate significant moments with clients, partners or internal teams in an exclusive and refined environment. The venue accommodates buffet lunches or dinners for up to 30 guests and seated dining for up to 16, both indoors and outdoors on the panoramic terrace. Bespoke culinary experiences are crafted by our private on-site chef.

In addition, breakfast meetings or aperitif receptions for up to 30 guests can be arranged, with presentation facilities available upon request. Overnight accommodation is provided for up to 8 guests across four double bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, while dedicated on-site coordination ensures flawless execution in an intimate and prestigious environment.

Full Event Management by Promoest

Through our direct partnership with Ca' Dadda, we ensure the exclusive and fully integrated management of the entire venue, offering our clients a single point of contact for the entire project.

The Promoest team oversees every phase of the event, providing continuous operational supervision, quality control and strategic direction, from guest arrival through to the final moments of the initiative.

We manage detailed agenda planning, timelines and deadlines, as well as the coordination of all suppliers involved, ensuring a structured, consistent and fully brand-aligned execution.

Corporate Services & Experience Design

In addition to the exclusive use of the residence, we provide a comprehensive and structured service for high-profile corporate events and incentive experiences, attending to every detail with precision and discretion.

Our services include:

- Bespoke catering and private dining experiences with tailored menus
 - Curated entertainment and artistic performances
 - Scenic design and space customization
 - Graphic design and branded materials
 - Brand activations and dedicated content creation
 - Full organizational secretariat and logistics management
 - Hotel coordination, transfers and travel arrangements

Each event is conceived as a fully tailored project, built around the client's positioning and strategic objectives, transforming the venue into a distinctive and cohesive narrative space.

Exclusive Services & Bespoke Experiences

Promoest ensures the integrated and professional management of all organizational, administrative and strategic aspects of the event.

We oversee the entire process, from initial planning through to final financial reconciliation, ensuring control, precision and operational continuity.

Our core areas of expertise include:

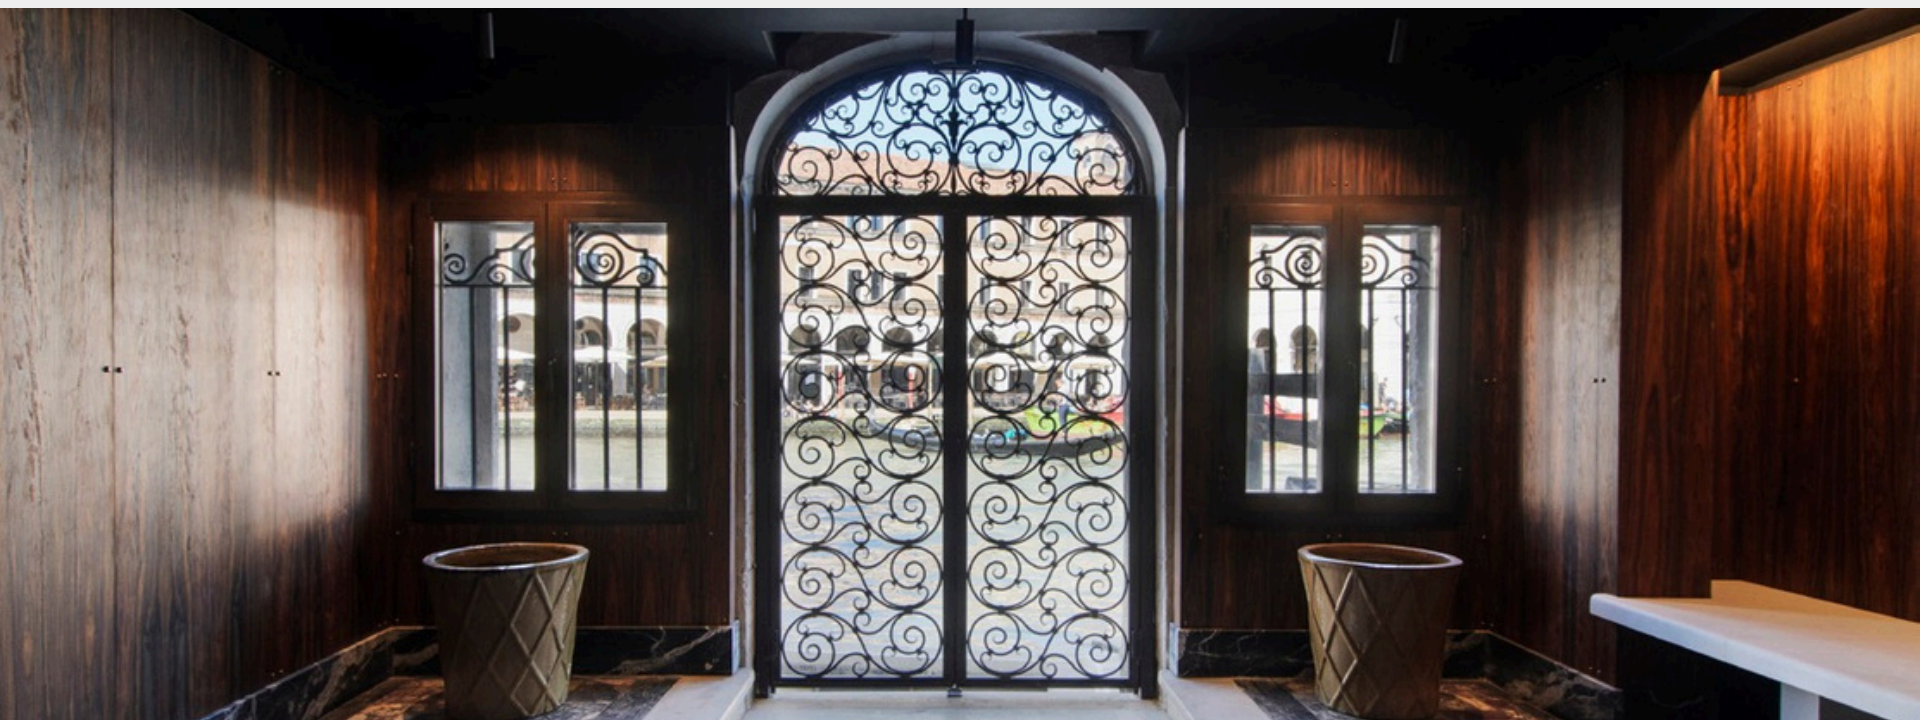

- Budget management and contractual negotiations
- Financial control, invoice management and final reconciliation
- Online participant registration system
- On-site accreditation and guest management

We also oversee the comprehensive management of event content and operational workflows, ensuring continuous coordination and strategic alignment throughout all phases.

In particular:

- Speaker management (invitations, flights, accommodation and presentations)
- Pre-event, on-site and post-event communications
- Participant surveys and post-event reporting

Our structured approach combines strategic planning, organizational expertise and financial governance, ensuring measurable outcomes and efficient, high-quality delivery.
